Old Business.

The latest update on the storm shelters is that they are being cast. We will need to pay for the shelters in advance. Once a payment schedule has been presented, we will proceed with paying the same from the general account after commission approval.

The siren is on the list with Crossroads Electric.

Sue’s pay was discussed. After much discussion she will remain with the nine months of pay being spread out over twelve months. The need to minimize overtime was also discussed.

There have been two applications for seasonal workers, however, the amount the applicants could do would be minimized due to their age.

The grant from Garrison Diversion was received in the amount of $19,097.00/25%.

New Business.

Hope Seelye’s request to install a Phone of the Wind was denied. Ms. Seelye is free to install a phone on her camper if she chooses.
